

11. System Setup

<Abstract>

Set the system.

A screen to update the data in AuthenticationSystem table.

<Screen Image>

1. Max. Simultaneous Logins : 40 ☐ No limit

Share Single User ID : ☒ Allow ☐ Not allow

Restriction Check by Terminal : ☒ Yes ☐ No

Type of Main Menu : ☐ Large icon ☒ Small icon

Max. Login Attempts : No limit

Hold Failed Login Count for (min.) : 0 ☐ No limit

2.

DAIFUKU Copyright(C) 2002 DAIFUKU Co., Ltd. All rights reserved

<Procedure>

1. Enter the system data you modify.

- (1) Enter the Max. Simultaneous Logins. (Necessary)
 - When you set the Max. Simultaneous Logins to Indefinite, tick the [Indefinite] check box. Once it is ticked, the “-1” is entered in the Max. Simultaneous Logins. “-1” means indefinite.
- (2) Select the Share Single User ID.
 - * For details, refer to “Chapter 1. 1. User Control / Login Authentication”.
- (3) Select the Restriction Check by Terminal.
 - * For details, refer to “Chapter 1. 1. User Control / Login Authentication”.
- (4) Select Main Menu.
 - * For details, refer to “Chapter 1. 2. Display Main Menu and Sub-menu”.
- (5) Select the Max. Login Attempts.
 - * For details, refer to “Chapter 1. 1. User Control / Login Authentication”.
- (6) Select the Hold Failed Login Count for (min.).
 - When you set the Hold Failed Login Count for (min.) to Indefinite, tick the [Indefinite] check box. Once it is ticked, the “-1” is entered in the Hold Failed Login Count for (min.). “-1” means indefinite.
 - * For details, refer to “Chapter 1. 1. User Control / Login Authentication”.

2. Set the data you modify.

- Press [Submit] button.